

The first corona patient returned home after recovered from Prakash Hospital: Patients and family thanked the doctors and staff.

Considering the increasing number of corona patients, Nishikant Bhosale-Patil (Dada) started a Covid hospital for the treatment of corona affected patients in Sangli district including Walwa, Shirala taluka, Uruun - Islampur Municipal Council and founder of Prakash Hospital and Research Centre, Nishikant Bhosale-Patil (Dada) started a Covid hospital for the treatment of corona patients on the first day in this hospital for treatment of this hospital The patient who was admitted has recovered and returned home today. The fear on the faces of the patients and relatives was seen full of happiness and satisfaction. The one. A 58-year-old man from Bilashi in Shirala taluka was admitted to Prakash Hospital and Research Centre at Urun-Islampur for further treatment from Shirala Sub-District Hospital on August 7 This patient was immediately treated after his admission. After the treatment started, the patients were improving slowly. Today, Saturday, August 15th, discharged due to complete recovery.

At this time, the first patient who was admitted to Prakash Hospital and Research Center was recovered and returned home, showered flowers and roses on the patient, the specialist doctors, nurses and other staff from the hospital said goodbye. This time, the patients were felicitated by the hands of former corporator Kapil Oswal by giving trees and bouquet.

At this time, the patients and the relatives of the patient thanked the Mayor of Urun-Islampur Municipal Council and founder of Prakash Hospital Nishikant Bhosale-Patil (Dada) and all the expert doctors, nurses staff and management for successful treatment and facilities in the hospital.

